NEWS OF KANSAS.

Proposed Passenger and Freight Barges on the Kaw,

To Run Between Lawrence and Kansas City.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

Ellis Coxeyites at Leavenworth Can't Get Counsel.

LAWRENCE, June 8.—A number of gentlemen in Kansas City have organized a company for the purpose of building boats to run on the Missouri and Kaw rivers near that city and will, as soon as the boats are completed, establish a regular line from Atchison to the city on the Missouri and from Lawrence to the city on the Kaw river. The boats are to be used for the purpose of carrying freight and passengers to and from the places where they touch. The special use for which they are being built is the carrying of the light vegetables to market from the various points along the Kaw river.

One of the boats has already been completed. It is sixty-five feet long and nine feet wide, and is capable of carrying an enormous load of freight. It is the purpose of the company to also construct barges on which the heavier crops can be loaded and brought to the local market. The company will arrange to load the vessels at points up the river and then steam down and reach the market early in the morning.

They claim they will be able to get the product to the market easier, cheaper and in better condition than can possibly be done when it is transported in wagons or in cars. Landing places will be arranged at every three mile station on the river, and the company expects to soon build up a flourishing trade.

The first trip will be made as soon as the machinery is tested and the boat licensed to do business. The boat cost about $3,000.

The company is composed of such men as Major J. Fuller, Mr. N. Schee, Mr. W. S. Johns and others who have interests in the Kaw Valley.

HAD NO ATTORNEYS.

Nether Joe Waters nor Charles Blood Smith Would Defend the Wealers.

LEAVENWORTH, June 8.—In the United States circuit court yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of Robert H. Clough-ley against the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway company rendered a verdict giving the plaintiff $3,700 for personal injuries. The sum sued for was $10,000.

The case of John Ralston, Ed Hart and Frank E. Woods, the Coxeyites captured at Ellis, Kan., and who were to have been tried for contempt, went over for the time being. When the case was called it appeared that the wealers had no attorneys.

"Have you an attorney?" asked Judge Thomas.

"We understood there were three lawyers in the city to defend us," answered Capt. Ralston, "but I don't see either of them here. I guess we don't need a lawyer. We are willing to go on the witness stand and state our side."

"You need an attorney," said the judge,
"I might make a mistake and you not know it."

Judge Thomas then asked Charles Blood Smith of Topeka to represent the "wealers." Mr. Smith declined, stating that he was interested in the other side.

Col. Joe Waters of Topeka was present in the court room, and some one suggested that he take the cases. "Yes," put in District Attorney Perry, "Colonel Waters is the general attorney for all the commonwealers in this part of the country."

But Mr. Waters declined to help the Coxeyites out.

COMMENCEMENT AT BAKER.

The Graduating Class this Year Numbered Twenty Men and Women.

BALDWIN, June 8.—The commencement exercises at Baker university were closed with the graduation of one of the largest classes that has ever gone from the institution. There was a larger attendance of old students, alumni and visitors than usual.

The graduating class numbers twenty and is as follows: Thos. B. Adell, James F. Atherton, Frank J. Benscoter, Bessie Boughton, Dan B. Brummitt, Lizzie B.
Cone, Loren D. Cornin, Homer E. Cullison, Minnie J. Games, Will Games, Edith J. Kirkpatrick, George A. Marvel, Ira Motter, H. L. Mueser, James W.
Reed, Lillian Scott, Olive M. Stuart, Irwin Stimmel, O. L. Uter and H. B. Wren.

Miss Ida A. Ahlborn has resigned the chair of English and history and her place was filled by S. A. Lough, class of '88.

SALT HAS LOST ITS SAVOR.

The Elsie in the Arkansas River Damaging Hutchinson Property.

HUTCHINSON, June 8.—The New York salt plant, owned by the Kansas Salt company, is entirely surrounded by the Arkansas river, which is out of its banks, and several hundred barrels of salt stored therein are ruined.

The foundation of both the New York and Riverside plants are in danger of giving away and wrecking the buildings.
Grave fears are still entertained for the safety of the new wagon bridge up the river, for should the reported additional rise in the river come, the bridge will surely be swept away. Should the wagon bridge go, the two railroad bridges below, and the iron bridge near Riverside park would undoubtedly have to succumb to the great pressure.

Dr. J. M. Bryant, who lives in North Topeka, was driving north on Kansas avenue at 4 p. m. yesterday, when the harness broke. The horse ran and when crossing Fourth street collided with a farm wagon, upsetting Mr. Bryant's buggy and throwing him out on his head and shoulders. He was dragged a short distance. He was picked up and carried to Dr. C. S. McClintock's office.

His left leg and left arm were badly bruised and his back injured. He was removed to his home on Logan avenue.
The horse was stopped at the bridge. He is better today.

WHY SO KIND?

A Warm Feeling Between the Administration and the Pullman Company.

Mr. W. F. Rightmire says from what he knows about affairs of state, the present executive council must be owned by the Pullman palace car company.

In speaking of the Pullman Company's relation to the administration today, Mr.
Rightmire said:

"In 1893, in February, I called the attention of the governor and attorney general, personally to this matter at different times and informed them that the Pullman company was taking advantage of the state of affairs in the circuit court, and compromising the claims of the counties in which its taxes were large amounts, and escaping the legal penalties for non-payment, and asked that such action be taken as would save to the counties the penalties and the full amount of the taxes, and was promised by both that action would be taken at once."

"Two months afterwards on inquiring of Clerk Sharriff I learned that nothing had been done, and I at once went to the capitol to see the governor and attorney general, to learn why nothing had been done, and I was plainly told that it was one of my business; that they were running the state, and would run it in their own way. I returned to my office with a determination to watch for the results, and what were they? First—A reduction of the assessment of Pullman cars $500 per car in the assessment of 1893 by the board of railway assessors; second—a free Pullman train to take state officers and their invited guests to Chicago and return for Kansas week at the World's fair, and nothing done yet in the matter in court."

"On the calling of the docket of the United States circuit court for the present June term at Leavenworth, while John T. Little, attorney general of Kansas, was present to protect the interests of his private clients, in the case of the Black Bob Indian lands, he sat in the court room and looked wise, when case No. 6118 of the Pullman palace car company vs. Allen county et al, was called; in the words of the prophet Isaiah, 'As a sheep before her shearer is dumb, so he opened not his mouth,' and the case was continued to the November term of the court and probably by that time, the Pullman company will have its delinquent taxes all settled in the different counties, by its pretended generosity of paying the same before the injunction cases are decided, if the counties will throw off the penalties and interest."

"Great is reform as practised by the incumbents of the state offices, but it is not the reform that accords with the reform principles of the Greenback, Union-Labor and People's party, that for so many years have received my support, and because I do not bow the knee and cry, 'Dixie' of the Populist party, of the sweet smelling bouquets that are to be found in the state house,' I and all others who preserve their independence, and will not bend the knee to incompetence or the corrupt blindness that looks complacently upon the joint ridden metropolitan cities, like Topeka, with her sixteen incorporated club rooms, are branded as kickers."

Great excitement was created in the vicinity of 1217 Kansas avenue yesterday by the report gaining currency that Mrs.
John Gannon, who resides at that number, had taken two ounces of chloroform or laudanum or something. Mrs. Gannon herself told the doctor it was chloroform, but whatever it was it didn't hurt her and she was still alive this morning and didn't seem to be much the worse for her experience. A faint suspicion reached the ear of the JOURNAL reporter that she didn't take anything, but was only trying to frighten John, who is said to have been on a spree for some days past.
